Nebraska Had Not Been Advised That Transfer Had Seen Made

New York, March 16.—When the Connecticut, flagship of the American battleship fleet, came up past Quarantine yesterday morning from Hampton Roads and cast anchor about hair at mile below the Nebraska, the rear admiral's flag came near causing a severe broach of naval etiquette, best dies a serious embarrasment to Captain Reginald F. Nicholson, commander of the Nebraska.

Somehow the news of an important happening that had taken place in flampton Roads the morning before lad not reached New York in time for publication in the morning papers, nor had it been transmitted to the Nebraska by wireless from tight was that the Connecticut lay at anchor for about twenty-five minutes before the guns of the Nebraska boomed a galute to the flag of Rear Admiral C. S. Sperry in the command of the American battleship fleet.

Whether the damage to the telegraph wires in Maryland was responsible for the delay in the news getsible for the de

Whether the damage to the telegraph wires in Maryland was responsible for the delay in the news getting to New York did not transpire yesterday. Why it did not come by wireless to the Nebraska nobody seemed to know, for so far as could be learned the blizzard that swept away wires did not snatch away all the Herslan waves from the atmosphere between here and Washington or Hampton Roads. The news was print-

Admiral Defeated by Dewey at Manila In Danger as Well as Cervers.

MADRID, March 10.—While Vica-Admiral Ververs, who commanded the Spanish fleet that was destroyed near Santlago, is only kept alive at Puerro Real by the use of oxygen and hypodernic injections, Vice-Admiral Montojo, whose fleet was destroyed or captured by Rear Admiral Dewey at Manila, is ill here with pneumonia.

The exceptional severity of the weather for the past few weeks has been the cause of the death of an extraordinary number of prominent men, including a score of life senators. General Inclan, chief of staff, died to-day, and General Azcarraga, formerly minister of war, is seriously III.
